KMCLU Legal Literacy National Quiz 2026

Justice P. N. Bhagwati Memorial Series

On the Occasion of International Literacy Day – 8 September 2026

Organized by Faculty of Legal Studies, KMCLU

Introduction

The Faculty of Legal Studies, Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti Language University (KMCLU), Lucknow, successfully organized the KMCLU Legal Literacy National Quiz 2026 – Justice P. N. Bhagwati Memorial Series on the occasion of International Literacy Day, 8 September 2026. The event was organized under the guidance of the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Ajay Taneja, with the objective of promoting legal literacy, awareness of rights, access to justice, constitutional understanding, analytical reasoning and academic excellence among students. The programme was conceived as an academic platform to encourage students to learn law, think critically, work as a team and develop awareness of their legal rights and responsibilities.

Theme and Significance

The quiz was organized under the Justice P.N. Bhagwati Memorial Series to acknowledge the contribution of Justice P.N. Bhagwati to Indian jurisprudence, particularly in the areas of Public Interest Litigation, fundamental rights, access to justice and social justice. Organizing the programme on International Literacy Day also provided an opportunity to emphasize that literacy extends beyond reading and writing and includes legal literacy, enabling citizens to understand their rights, duties and available legal remedies. The central message of the programme was “Know the Law. Strengthen Democracy.”

Objectives of the Event

The primary objective of the event was to promote legal literacy and develop a deeper understanding of law among students. The quiz aimed to strengthen conceptual and analytical learning, encourage students to apply legal principles to practical situations, improve quick thinking and decision-making, develop teamwork and communication skills, increase awareness of constitutional rights and duties, and familiarize students with contemporary legal developments. The competition also sought to promote healthy academic competition and contribute towards developing informed and responsible citizens.

Organizational Leadership

The programme was organized under the academic leadership of Prof. Ajay Taneja, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, KMCLU, as Patron; Prof. Masood Alam, Dean, Faculty of Legal Studies, as Chairperson; and Dr. Piyush Kumar Trivedi, Head, Faculty of Legal Studies, who provided academic and administrative guidance for the successful conduct of the event. The programme was coordinated by Dr. Prashant Kumar Varun and Dr. Diksha Mishra. The event also received valuable support from faculty members including Dr. Rajkumar Singh, Mr. Anshul Pandey, Mrs. Nidhi Singh, Mrs. Zainab Iftakar Khan and Mr. Dipanshu Balmiki.

Registration and Participation

The event received an encouraging response from the students of the Faculty of Legal Studies. A total of 14 teams registered for the competition. However, before the commencement of the Preliminary Round, one registered team withdrew from the competition. As a result, 13 teams participated in the Preliminary Round. The competition subsequently progressed through the Semi-Final and Final stages, providing students with an opportunity to demonstrate their legal knowledge, conceptual clarity, analytical ability, speed and teamwork.

Subject Areas

The quiz covered eight important areas of law and legal awareness, namely Constitutional Law, Law of Torts, Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, Jurisprudence, Family Law, Administrative Law, Legal Current Affairs and Law of Contract. Constitutional Law primarily covered Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy. Law of Torts included the meaning and definition of tort, assault, battery, strict liability and absolute liability. The Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita component covered general exceptions and offences against the human body and property. Jurisprudence included the meaning, definition and schools of jurisprudence. Family Law covered marriage, adoption, divorce and maintenance. Administrative Law included principles of natural justice, rule of law and separation of powers. Legal Current Affairs focused on important recent judgments, legislation and contemporary legal developments, while Law of Contract covered definitions, capacity to contract, consent and void agreements.

Quiz Structure

The competition was conducted in three stages, namely the Preliminary/MCQ-Based Round, Semi-Final Round and Final Round. The structure was designed to progressively increase the level of difficulty and move students from objective assessment of legal knowledge towards interactive, analytical and application-based competition.

Preliminary Round – 7 September 2026

The Preliminary Round was conducted on 7 September 2026. Out of the 14 registered teams, 13 teams participated in this round because one registered team had withdrawn. The round was based primarily on multiple-choice questions, designed on the pattern of competitive examinations. Questions covered the prescribed areas of law and included a combination of conceptual, analytical, case-based and knowledge-oriented questions. The round assessed the participants' accuracy, conceptual understanding, legal awareness and time-management skills. After evaluation of the performance of the participating teams, seven teams qualified for the Semi-Final Round.

Semi-Final Round – 7 September 2026

The Semi-Final Round was also conducted on 7 September 2026 and featured the seven teams that had qualified from the Preliminary Round. The round was designed to be more challenging and interactive, requiring participants to demonstrate conceptual clarity, quick response, legal reasoning and the ability to apply legal principles. The participating teams displayed considerable preparation and enthusiasm, and the round provided an engaging academic environment in which students competed with confidence and healthy competitive spirit. The results of this stage determined the teams progressing towards the concluding stage of the competition.

Final Round – 8 September 2026

The Final Round was conducted on 8 September 2026, coinciding with International Literacy Day. The final stage was designed as the most challenging and engaging component of the competition. It incorporated different forms of questioning and interactive quiz segments, including Direct Questions, Pass/Transfer, Case Law, Legal Current Affairs and Buzzer-based questions, along with other interactive segments. The final round tested the participants' conceptual understanding, legal reasoning, knowledge of important cases and contemporary developments, speed, accuracy, confidence and team coordination. The atmosphere during the final was highly energetic and academically stimulating, with the participating teams demonstrating impressive preparation and competitive spirit.

Distinguished Guests

The Final Round was graced by the presence of distinguished personalities from scientific, academic and legal fields. Dr. Abhishek Bharadwaj Sharma, Senior Scientist & Professor, Cancer Biology Division, CSIR-CDRI, Government of India, honoured the programme with his presence and interaction with the students. Dr. R.S. Verma, Professor of Chemistry, University of Lucknow, Lucknow, also attended the programme and encouraged the participants. Mr. Devendra Rai, Senior Advocate and newly appointed Professor of Practice, Faculty of Legal Studies, brought valuable professional and practical legal perspectives to the event. The presence and interaction of the distinguished guests significantly enhanced the academic value of the programme and inspired the students.

Declaration of Results

After the successful completion of the Final Round, the results were declared. Team No. 4, comprising Aradhana, Sanjana, Ashutosh and Yakoob, emerged as the Winner of the KMCLU Legal Literacy National Quiz 2026. The team demonstrated excellent conceptual understanding, accuracy, teamwork, confidence and consistency throughout the competition. Team No. 14, comprising Mohd. Saad, Vivek, Zeenat and Shreyansh, secured the Runner-Up position. The runner-up team also displayed commendable legal knowledge, teamwork and competitive spirit throughout the various stages of the competition.

Appreciation by the Head of the Faculty

Dr. Piyush Kumar Trivedi, Head, Faculty of Legal Studies, appreciated the enthusiastic participation of the students and congratulated the winning and runner-up teams for their outstanding performance. He also appreciated the efforts of the coordinators, faculty members and organizing team for ensuring the successful conduct of the programme. The event reflected the Faculty's commitment to providing students with opportunities for academic enrichment beyond conventional classroom teaching.

Academic Significance and Outcomes

The quiz provided students with an opportunity to move beyond conventional textbook-based learning and engage with law through conceptual, analytical and application-oriented questions. The competition enhanced students' awareness of important areas of law, strengthened their understanding of constitutional and statutory principles, encouraged awareness of contemporary legal developments and developed skills relating to teamwork, communication, quick decision-making and problem-solving. The interaction with academicians and a practicing legal professional further provided students with exposure to interdisciplinary and professional perspectives. The programme thus served as an effective bridge between classroom learning, legal awareness and practical intellectual engagement.

Overall Proceedings

The entire competition was successfully conducted over 7 and 8 September 2026. On 7 September, the Preliminary Round was conducted with 13 participating teams out of 14 registered teams, followed by the Semi-Final Round in which seven teams qualified and competed. On 8 September, the Final Round was organized on the occasion of International Literacy Day. The final stage included several interactive segments designed to test knowledge, legal reasoning, speed and teamwork. The competition concluded with the declaration of Team No. 4 as Winner and Team No. 14 as Runner-Up.

Conclusion

The KMCLU Legal Literacy National Quiz 2026 – Justice P. N. Bhagwati Memorial Series successfully concluded with enthusiastic student participation, meaningful academic engagement and healthy competition. The journey from 14 registered teams to 13 participating teams in the Preliminary Round, seven teams qualifying for the Semi-Final and the subsequent Final Round on International Literacy Day demonstrated the success of the initiative. The programme effectively combined legal knowledge, analytical reasoning, current legal awareness, teamwork and competitive skills while reinforcing the importance of legal literacy
