It saw an enthusiastic participation from UG and PG students who turned up in numbers to showcase their writing skills and reflect on the socio-cultural relevance of literature. While every participant was a winner in the eyes of the Department, however, there were three students who were able to shine brighter than others and deserved to be accoladed. Following thorough deliberation and a unanimous decision, Arshuma Khan (M.A. I) secured the First position, Anamika Trivedi (UG II) was awarded Second place, and Raaj Yadav (BBA III) stood Third.
