

Department of English and Modern European & Asian Languages

World European Day Celebration on 26.09.25

The Department of English & Modern European & Asian Languages celebrated the World European Day with much fervor and flair. Organized by the students of the Department under the guidance and support of Prof. Tanveer Khadija (Head) and other faculty members, the celebration was graced by the presence of Prof. Ajay Taneja, the honorable Vice-Chancellor of the University, along with his staff. Dr. Ruchita Sujai Chowdhary also attended the event to extend her support to the students. The hustle and bustle of activities could be noticed right from early in the morning as the volunteers and participants got busy with their preparations. The celebrations were kicked off with an essay writing competition on “Language Unites the World.” While it was difficult to pick winners from a myriad of great writings, Zara Afzal Ansari, a student of U.G. V (English) was awarded the first prize, with Nazish Fatima, from B.Tech. CSE and Abeda Mariyam, a student of U.G. I (English) standing Second and Third respectively. After heartily receiving the honorable Vice-Chancellor accompanied by a French song performance by Faiz Ali Warsi and Kashfiya Rafi, Prof. Tanveer Khadija delivered the Welcome Address to formally begin the celebration. The highlights of the event included an Art-Museum, European Food Stalls, Ballet and Modern Dance performances by Raj Nandini Singh and Ashna Shamim, French Skit performed by Faiz Ali Warsi and Kashfiya Rafi, skits on major western philosophers and the Bronte sisters, performances of French poetry and Hamlet’s “To be or not to be” soliloquy, and a talk show with the Vice-Chancellor that was hosted by Abeda Mariyam. The performances were followed by certificate distribution and

Dr. Haroon Rasheed tied it all together by delivering a heartfelt and considerate vote of thanks. In conclusion, the event was a resounding success and the genuine support and appreciation of the Vice-Chancellor was truly encouraging for the students and faculty members alike.

Glimpses of the Event:

