

Partnerships for the Goals

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signed between Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti Language University, Lucknow, Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Agra, and Maharaja Suhel Dev State University, Azamgarh directly supports SDG 17 – Partnerships for the Goals by promoting institutional collaboration in higher education and research.

Through this agreement, the universities will work together in areas such as faculty and student exchange, joint research projects, academic seminars, workshops, and training programmes. This collaboration strengthens academic networks, encourages knowledge sharing, and enhances research opportunities for students and faculty members.

By building strong partnerships between universities, the initiative contributes to improving the quality of higher education and supports sustainable academic development through cooperative efforts.

