

STUDENT INDUCTION PROGRAMME (SIP) / DEEKSHARAMBH PROGRAMME

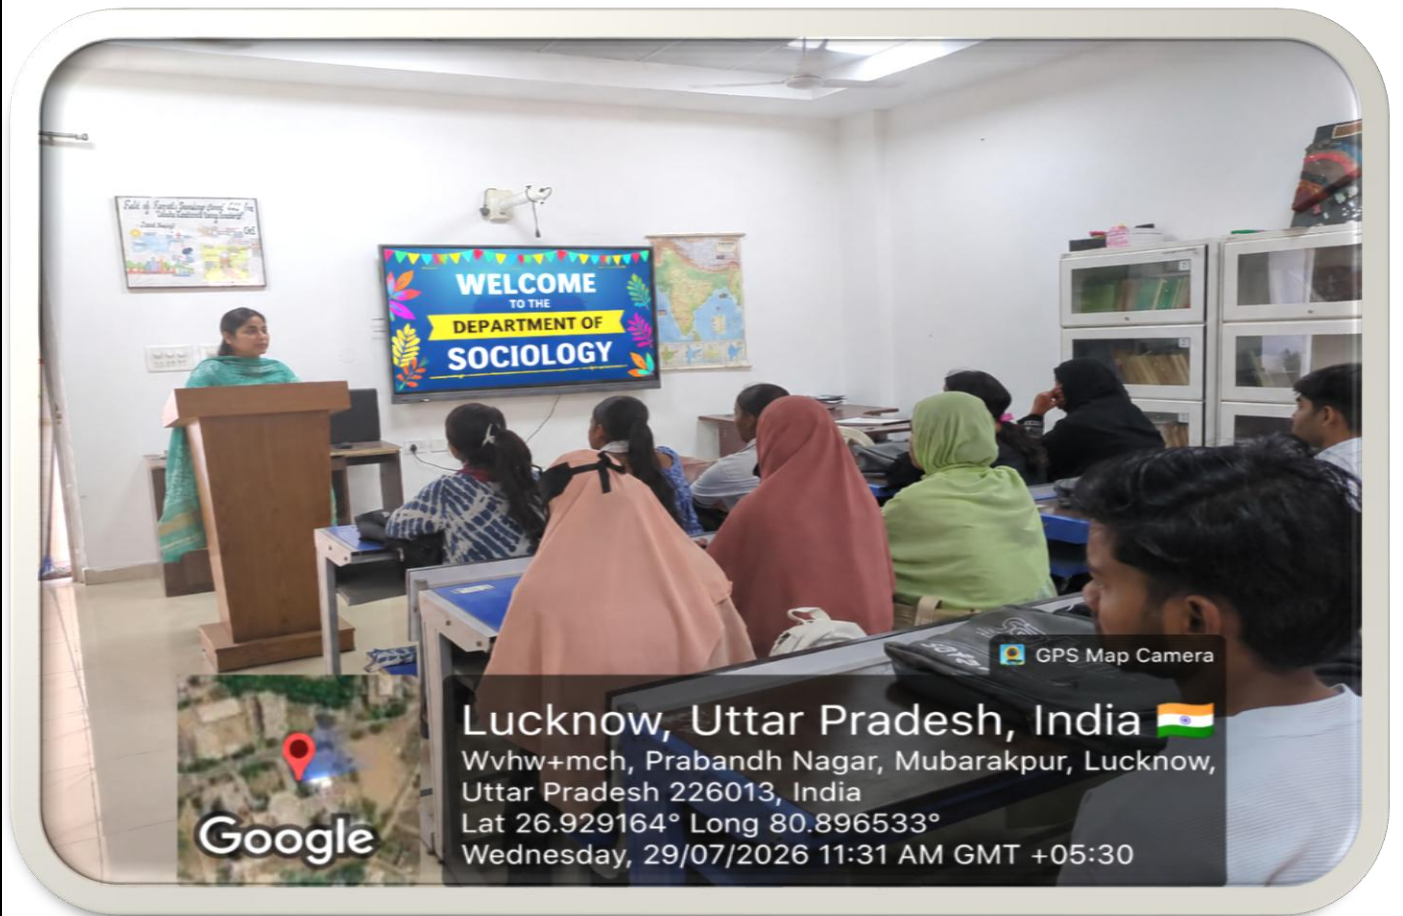

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

The Department of Sociology, KMCLU, Lucknow, organized a Student Induction Programme (SIP) / Deeksharambh Programme for newly admitted students as part of the University's week-long orientation programme. The session was conducted by Dr. Zia Jafri, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, K.M.C.L.U.

During the programme, Dr. Zia Jafri welcomed the students and oriented them to the University's academic environment, campus facilities, library, canteen, sports facilities, gymnasium, Women Cell, student support services, code of conduct, discipline, examination system, and other important aspects of university life. She also guided the students about the Department of Sociology, its faculty members, syllabus structure, teaching-learning process, internal assessment, and examination pattern.

As part of the programme, students were also sensitized about the Nasha Mukti Abhiyan. An educational documentary was screened to create awareness about the harmful effects of substance abuse and to encourage students to contribute towards the vision of a Nasha Mukti Bharat. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from the newly admitted students.
