Storytelling Competition- Children's Day, 14 November 2026

On the occasion of Children's Day, 14 November 2026, the Rovers & Rangers Unit of Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti Language University, Lucknow organized a Storytelling Competition to celebrate creativity, imagination, and expression among students. The event was well organized under the patronage of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Ajay Taneja and guidance of Dr. Udham Singh, Nodal Officer Rovers and Rangers. The competition was conducted from 11:00 AM onwards in Room No. 301, Academic Building, KMCLU, Lucknow.

A total of 15 students, all Rovers & Rangers of KMCLU, attended and participated in the event with great enthusiasm. The event was graced by the presence of Dr. Udham Singh, Nodal Officer, Rovers and Rangers, Dr. Yusairah Ahmad, Incharge Rangers, Dr. Anamika Singh, and Dr. Madhuri Chauhan, whose guidance and encouragement greatly motivated the participants. The competition was held on the theme of Inspirational Stories, and participants were allowed to narrate in Hindi, English, or Urdu. Each participant was given a time limit of 3 minutes to present their story. As per the rules, narration had to be from memory, and reading from paper or phone was not allowed, though simple props were permitted.

The programme began with a welcome address by the Rovers & Rangers Unit, highlighting the significance of Children's Day and the role of storytelling in building values, confidence, and imagination. This was followed by the performances, in which participants presented inspiring stories based on courage, honesty, kindness, perseverance, patriotism, and moral values. With the help of voice modulation, expressions, gestures, and simple props, the participants made their narrations engaging and impactful. The event concluded with a feedback and interaction session where participants shared their experiences.

The event was a great success and achieved its objectives of encouraging public speaking, boosting confidence, promoting multilingual expression, and strengthening teamwork and bonding among Rovers & Rangers. All 15 participants completed their performances within the stipulated time and displayed excellent creativity and clarity of thought. The Rovers & Rangers Unit, KMCLU expresses its sincere gratitude to Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Ajay Taneja for his patronage, to Dr. Udham Singh, Dr. Yusairah Ahmad, Dr. Anamika Singh, and Dr. Madhuri Chauhan for their presence and support, and to all participants for making the Storytelling Competition a memorable and successful event.
