AWARENESS PROGRAMMES ON CODE OF CONDUCT FOR ALL STUDENTS

The University ensures that regular awareness programmes on the values in the Vision, Mission and policy on the Code of Conduct of the University are organized to orient the students to make them acquainted with the rules, regulations and the Code of Conduct that govern them during the course of study at the University. Every year during the start of academic session, Induction Programmes are conducted for all students in which the academic professionals from different fields are invited to address the students about the various ethics that they should follow during the course of study.

7.1.10 Report on the student attributes facilitated by the Institution

The overriding objective of education is the all-round development of a student's personality with a holistic perspective concerned with the development of every student's intellectual, emotional, social, physical, artistic, creative and spiritual potentials. It seeks to engage students in the teaching/learning process and encourages personal and collective responsibility so that they bloom in their all aspects.

To foster all round development of students, there is a need to strike a balance between syllabi-curriculum, co-curricular activities. Co-curricular activities give the students an opportunity to develop particular skills and exhibit their non-academic abilities. Co-curricular activities offer the students an opportunity to work with others and gain sense of working culture of togetherness. There are various types of co-curricular activities conducted in the university, which offer students, an opportunity to work with others and to gain essential life skills. Though numerous co-curricular activities exist, the following activities are more prominently conducted in the University:

S. No.	Attributes	Facilitated Through
