

Water Conservation
Facilities Available in the Institution
Photographs of Borewell Water Recharge System

Borewell recharge systems at various locations within the University campus for replenishing groundwater levels and promoting sustainable water management

Borewell recharge systems constructed near Administrative Building of the University