Any Special Information
An Assistant Professor in the Department of Business Administration, Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti Language University, Lucknow, Dr. Doa Naqvi, has been specializing in Corporate Finance and Business Communication for the past decade. She takes an avid interest in delivering interactive lectures, conducting academic programs and engaging students of various undergraduate and postgraduate courses. In her role as a community leader, Doa has been mentoring and guiding hundreds of students, especially girls, to pursue higher education and become independent -both socially and financially.

In March 2019, she was the only Indian selected for U.S. Department of State's Flagship Programme, the prestigious -International Visitor Leadership Programme(IVLP) entitled "Entrepreneurship as an Engine of Prosperity and Stability- Small Business Development". During her brief stint in the United States, Dr. Doa gained valuable insights related to the entrepreneurial ecosystem of the superpower.

During her student life, Doa was the recipient of the coveted Chancellor's Gold Medal awarded by University of Lucknow, for being the best student in all the faculties in the year 2011. No MBA student had ever won the Chancellor's Gold medal in the past 42 years, and no Muslim student had received this medal in the past 50 years.

A bright, confident woman, she has, from time to time, engaged in various social activities- be it teaching the underprivileged children dwelling in slums or writing articles on issues such as women empowerment, right to education and environment conservation. She has been awarded with the Essential Woman Award-2019 , U.P. Icon Award-2019 , The Essential Women Award-2015, Bhartiya Nari Samman-2014, Worthy Women Award-2013, The Pride of Women Award-2013 and was also nominated for the prestigious 'HT woman award 2014' by Hindustan Times, for her outstanding achievements.
