

One day International Seminar on rethinking progressive ideology in contemporary Urdu literature.

One day International Seminar held in Urdu Department of Khwaja Muinuddin Chishti Language University Lucknow on rethinking progressive ideology in contemporary Urdu literature. Program Coordinator Prof. Sauban Saeed introduced while welcoming the scholars who attended the seminar. He said that Urdu manners are playing an important role in our society today. Mr. Amir Mehdi (Chief Editor Sahafat, UK) while reading his paper, said that progressive choice thinking is very important for the development of society. He said that as long as there is oppression and excessive and injustice in the world there will be progress choice movement, another try of progress choice thinking is women freedom in society that in our society women in our society are equal status without society. Prof. Khwaja Ikramuddin, JNU, said the language is now spoken worldwide, he said that he doesn't justify the progressive choice in the whole world. Speaking on the history of Urdu language, he said that Urdu manners have completely changed from the time of Khusro. Told the first poet of Khusro's Urdu manners and in the first poetry of Khusro's special talk on the changing form of Mahboob and when the same thing went towards Dakkan, the view of the lover changed. He insisted on paying attention to Takhliq and Tankeed, he said that the lover was recognized by the Sun in Dakan. Quoting the words of Sanskrit that when the dark age was going on in Europe, our Sanskrit language was talking about juice. Talking about Mir said that Mir's era was the golden age of Urdu language. And then two centers of Urdu manners came into the existence of Delhi and Lucknow. Need to pay attention to how to advance manners during the machine period. Prof. Abbas Raza Nayyer in his address thanking all the scholars sitting on stage thanking progressive choice idea saying technology has changed diction. He quoted Carl Marx's slave capital that he doesn't completely consider Carl Marx's progressive thinking because Carl Marx talks about equal pay but he could not give an example for it. University Chancellor Prof Ajay Taneja welcomed all the scholars attending the seminar and explained that Urdu language which has been working since 1920 for advancement choice thinking and still doing this thinking with great responsibility.

