Anti-Ragging Awareness Week

(12th August to 18th August, 2024)

As per the directives issued by the University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi, and under the guidance of our esteemed Vice-Chancellor, Prof. N. B. Singh, Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti Language University has successfully organized an Anti-Ragging Awareness Week from 12th August to 20th August 2024. The week-long event aimed to sensitize students about the serious implications of ragging and promote a harmonious academic environment. A series of activities and competitions were thoughtfully curated to engage students, encourage their participation, and foster a sense of responsibility towards maintaining a safe and inclusive campus. These initiatives not only highlighted the legal and moral consequences of ragging but also underscored the university's commitment to creating a nurturing atmosphere where every student can thrive without fear of harassment or intimidation. Through this campaign, the university reasserted its zero-tolerance policy towards ragging, ensuring that all students are aware of the resources and support systems available to them.

1. Orientation Program (12th August 2024)

The week commenced with an Orientation Program, presided over by the Proctor, Dr. Neeraj Shukla. The keynote speaker, Prof. Piyush Dwivedi from the Faculty of Law, addressed the legal aspects related to ragging and shared his insights with the students. The session provided a comprehensive overview of the consequences of ragging and emphasized the need for collective efforts to eradicate it. The program was conducted in Room No. 35, with Dr. Manish Kumar and Ms. Afreen Fatima as coordinators. Other faculty members and students were also present, contributing to the discussions and awareness-building efforts. The session successfully laid the foundation for the week-long awareness activities, reinforcing the university's commitment to a ragging-free campus.
