

ACTIVITIES DONE BY NCC CADTES 2023

International Yoga Day:

Our NCC cadets celebrated International Yoga Day by participating in yoga sessions organized by the university or NCC units. Yoga helps cadets to maintain a healthy body and calm mind, promoting mental and physical well-being.

Sport Events:

Our NCC cadets participated in various sports events, both at the university level and inter-collegiate level. Through sports activities like athletics, volleyball, basketball, and others, they learn the values of teamwork, discipline, and fair play.

Plantation Drives:

Our NCC cadets are actively involved in tree plantation drives organized by the university or local communities. They take up the initiative of planting trees, which helps to conserve nature.

Drawing Competition:

Our NCC cadets participated in drawing competition, emphasizing creative thinking and talent development. They showcase their artistic skills and learn from each other.

Rank Ceremony of NCC Cadets:

Our NCC cadets participated in rank ceremonies held to recognize and appreciate their achievements. They receive promotions, badges, and certificates, motivating them to strive for excellence and take up leadership roles in the NCC.

Traffic Awareness:

Our NCC cadets organized traffic awareness campaigns, educating people on road safety and traffic laws. They also participate in road safety drives.

Blood Donation Camps:

Our NCC cadets participate in blood donation camps organized by non-profit organizations or local health departments. They contribute to the organizations' efforts to supply the required blood units to hospitals as blood bank donors.

Cultural Events:

Our NCC cadets actively participate in various cultural events, such as dance and music performances, drama, and other artistic activities, underlining the importance of cultural diversity and ethnic harmony.

Independence Day Parade:

Our NCC cadets take immense pride in participating in the Independence Day parade. They march in perfect synchronization, showcasing their discipline, commitment, and patriotism towards the nation.
